Summary

Hi, I am an aspiring web developer actively seeking job opportunities as a fresher with six months to a year of experience.

I have honed my skills in ReactJS, JavaScript, HTML5, and CSS, enabling me to craft engaging and dynamic websites, you can check them out on my portfolio website. During my studies, I pursued a Diploma in Computer Engineering from Thakur Polytechnic, I've learned the software development lifecycle and different methodologies of building software

I am looking out for opportunities in organisations where I can utilise my skills to their full potential. I look forward to hearing from you.
